

Give hope. Give life.

Our Story

The Mid-South Transplant Foundation has helped to facilitate the organ and tissue donation process between donor families and transplant recipients and promotes awareness of donation through public and professional education.

Our logo represents the loving connection of two lives becoming one.

One side represents the hope in healing following loss -- and the other side represents the gift of life for the recipient. Give hope and give life by registering to be an organ and tissue donor today. Visit midsouthtransplant.org.

Their Gratitude:

"I am here because someone made the decision to become an organ donor. A transplant not only saved my life but changed my life."

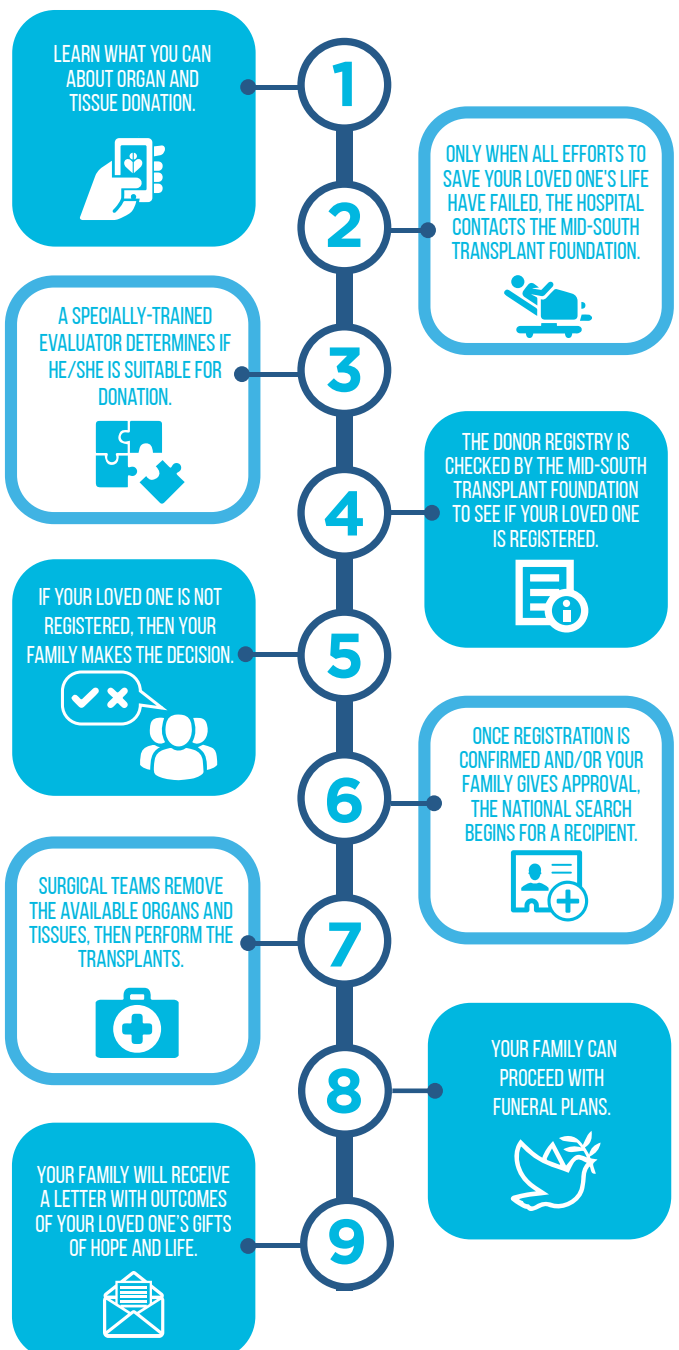

Amber Pettis, Kidney Recipient

"On May 30, I went into pre-surgery prep and came out a changed man. I'm so thankful and grateful for my second life."

Checliss Rice, Liver Recipient

Our Process

Healthcare and medical professionals do everything possible to save a life. Only after it has been determined he or she will not survive is donation considered.

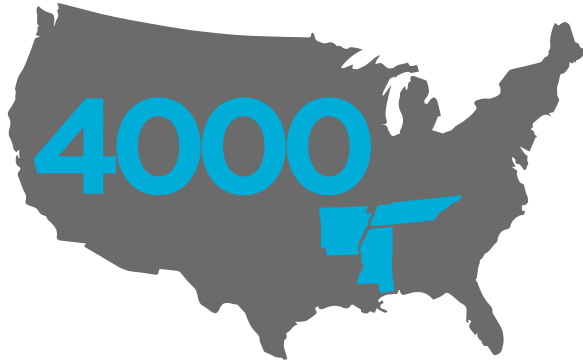

Organ and Tissue Donation

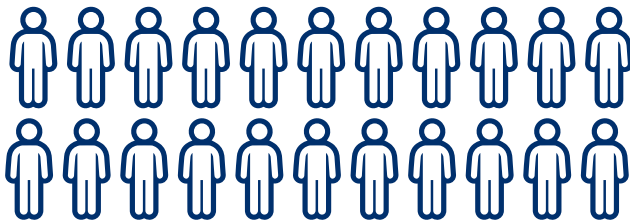

The Need

113,000+

There are more than 113,000 Americans waiting for a life-saving transplant.

4000+ PEOPLE IN ARKANSAS, MISSISSIPPI AND TENNESSEE WAITING FOR LIFE-SAVING ORGANS.

22 people die each day because the organs they need are not donated in time.

Every 10 minutes another person is added to the waiting list.

83% of patients waiting are in need of a kidney.

The Facts

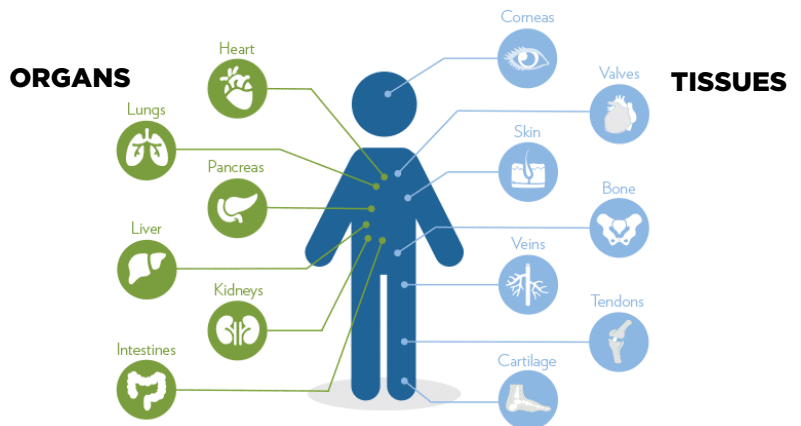

One organ and tissue donor:

Can save up to 8 lives

Restore sight to 2 people

Enhance the lives of more than 75 people

What can be donated?

All major religions in the U.S. support donation and view it as a final act of generosity.

An individual's donation status does not affect medical care. The first priority of medical professionals is to save lives.

Anyone can register to be an organ and tissue donor, regardless of age, race or medical history.

There is no cost to the donor or their family for organ and tissue donation.

Give Hope. Give Life.
